ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Georges Feydeau (1862-1921) was the Neil Simon of his day as almost yearly he had a hit farce on the boards. Basically similar plots of well-to-do husbands and wives caught in an ever-escalating web of intrigue and deception were rewoven year after year to the delight of Paris audiences. Though his plot construction was complex, Feydeau's formula was simple... "When writing a play, I seek among my characters the ones who should not run into each other. And those are precisely the ones I bring into a confrontation as soon as possible.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE: If it seems odd to you that some characters in this evening's play speak French accented English while others do not, please consider the following; Tonight's adaptation of HOTEL PARADISO is by British director Peter Glenville. Following an age-old London stage tradition, he rendered the lines of the servants and lower class characters into Cockney dialect. Since I found it difficult to explain the presence of so many Cockneys in turn-of-the-century Paris, I needed to find some other convention to delineate the classes of the characters by their speech. My solution is to have the lower class characters speak French accented English and the educated or middle class characters speak unaccented American stage speech. I trust this will not be too confusing.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

KIP KING (Boniface) came to California from Chicago, Illinois. Within six months, after a nation wide search, he had landed the role of Homer in THE ALDRICH FAMILY on CBS. After The Aldrich Family was cancelled for Gunsmoke, Kip continued to be featured on such programs as PLAYHOUSE 90, STUDIO ONE, CLIMAX and thirteen shows with Red Skelton. Kip's been featured on over 200 television shows and 27 features. He has been a continuing character on such diverse shows as BEN CASEY, CHANNING and most recently as Rabbi "Shecky" Stein on AMERICA 2NIGHT. Some of the movies he has appeared in include TEA AND SYMPATHY, PEYTON PLACE, BREAKFAST AT TIFFANY'S and WESTWORLD. You may have seen Kip lately on ONE DAY AT A TIME, DIFFERENT STROKES, HELLO LARRY or on a couple of BARNEY MILLER episodes. Mr. King also wrote the television series GOLDIE for Betty Hutton and has done stand up comedy on THE MERV GRIFFIN and STEVE ALLEN TV shows and at The Troubadour in Los Angeles and The Purple Onion in San Francisco. Kip was featured, for five years, with THE GROUNDLINGS improvisation group and has over 100 TV commercials under his belt... (remember the golfer in the PRUDENTIAL commercials who walks through trees, on water and up to heaven?). HOTEL PARADISO is Mr. King's first play.

MARY ELIZABETH CORRIGAN (Angelique) received her dramatic training at The Pasadena Playhouse College of Theatre Arts and with The Mark Taper Forum's Center Theatre Group. She has worked in summer stock at Ohio's Rabbit Run Playhouse and toured nationally with THE WORLD OF CARL SANDBURG. She has been seen locally in productions of SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE, A FLEA IN HER EAR, as well as her critically lauded one-woman show AN EVENING WITH DAME MADGE MAUDE. Another writing effort for children's theatre THE SECRET OF THE FROG KING, brought her a full National Endowment for the Arts Literary Grant. Ms. Corrigan has been seen on MAUDE, M*A*S*H, THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS and most recently co-starred on THE LITTLE HOUSE ON THE PRAIRIE.

VICTORIA CARROLL (Marcelle) was born to Vaudevillian parents. When she was 12 days old, she got her social security card and her father took her to an audition to play Greer Garson's "son" in a film. She lost the part, and in her extreme disappointment, decided to change her career to art. Victoria was a Fine Arts major in school and worked as a commercial artist. She began to take dancing lessons at night to relax after staring over a hot drawing board all day. As a lark, she auditioned for the chorus of the Moulin Rouge. She got the job, and dance became a new challenge and, incidentally, paid more than her art work. A dancing career led her to study drama with Ed Ludlum, Curt Conway, Charles Conrad and every other good teacher in town. Victoria has appeared in numerous productions at The Company of Angels, Oxford Theatre, Mark Taper Forum, etc. She has been a member of The Groundlings comedy-improvisational theatre for five years. Victoria's television credits include: a recurring role as Marie, Mel's girlfriend on ALICE. She has recently guest-starred on THE INCREDIBLE HULK, ARCHIE BUNKER'S PLACE, FREEBIE & THE BEAN, CHARLIE'S ANGELS, FANTASY ISLAND and a soon to be seen television special BIG BURLESQUE. This is her fourth Feydeau romp (he is her special love). In 1974, Victoria won The Drama Critics Circle Award for costuming A FLEA IN HER EAR.

GEORGE CLIFTON (Cot) is appearing for the first time at the Megaw. His stage credits include: the Broadway production FROG POND, plus numerous productions Off-Broadway in New York. He has also toured in several shows in and around the New York area. In Los Angeles, George has appeared in many Equity Waiver productions. He began his television work in ABC's THE NURSES for more than a year. In Los Angeles, he has been actively working in the various episodic television shows including two series pilots and movies for TV.

Other recent Megaw designs include the sumptuous Victorian sitting room of Elizabeth Barrett Browning and the French cafe and ancient cellar for THE MADWOMAN OF CHAILLOT. Jim currently heads his own firm, James Riddle Designsof Los ANGELES. He is the newest member of the Board of Directors of the International Society of Interior Designers, and co-chairs the Committee for the Restoration of Mount Ada, the Wrigley Estate on Santa Cataline Island.

FRED GOODMAN (Music and Sound Design) returns for his fourteenth Megaw show, having previously designed the music for STREET SCENE, OUT OF THE FRYING PAN, THE PHILADELPHIA STORY and THE MAN FROM MYSTIC MOUNTAIN. He also served as music director for THE CORN IS GREEN and, with Ms. Diane Burt, for CARNIVAL and THE BOY FRIEND. Megaw audiences have seen him onstage in CAN-CAN, ANASTASIA, PRESENT LAUGHTER, ANOTHER PART OF THE FOREST, BIG FISH-LITTLE FISH and SHE LOVES ME. Other local appearances include TWELFTH NIGHT at The Los Angeles Shakespeare Festival, directed by Elaine Moe, TROUBLE IN TAHITA at Theatre West and WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE: A PORTRAIT IN SOUND for National Public Radio. Fred has worked for 20 years as an actor/singer in concert, cabaret, theatre, television and recording studios. In addition, his byline frequently appears over interviews and articles about the Southern California arts/entertainment scene.

STEVE DONNER (Stage Manager/Assistant to the Director) comes to the Megaw after producing and stage managing the recent Drama-Logue critics choice production of THE THREE SISTERS at Theatre 40 in Beverly Hills. He's directed, acted and stage managed up and down the California coast including productions of MACBETH, THE BOY FRIEND, LITTLE MARY SUNSHINE, THE WORLD OF CARL SANDBURG, ANIMALS ARE PASSING FROM OUR LIVES (for the Old Globe in San Diego), WAITING FOR GODOT, EVERYMAN and COLD STORAGE. Besides directing two Emmy Nomination productions for KPBS-TV in San Diego, Steve has written stunts for BEAT THE CLOCK at CBS and musical clues for FACE THE MUSIC at KTLA. Onward and Upwards!!

ADDISON RANDALL (Technical Director Lights/Sound) has appeared in four Megaw Productions, designed the lights for 'THE BARRETT'S OF WIMPOLE STREET and MADWOMAN OF CHAILLOT, and doubled as stage manager of the latter, all since first coming to the Megaw seven months ago. He has also designed lights for productions of BLYTHE SPIRIT, A COMPANY OF WAYWARD SAINTS and LINE. Mr. Randall has also worked as a technician for The Los Angeles Ballet Company and The Variety Arts Theatre. He has worked on several feature motion pictures as an actor/stuntman and recently worked on BULLS EYE for American Cinema.

BARBARA DUNLAP (Assistant to the Costume Designer) designed the costumes for the World Premiere production of IN HONOR OF MOUSIE and worked as Mr. Garland Riddle's assistant on SHE LOVE ME, THE BARRETT'S OF WIMPOLE STREET and THE MADWOMAN OF CHAILLOT. She has assisted Mr. Riddle on several other productions including FIDDLER ON THE ROOF at Earl Holliman's Fiesta Dinner Playhouse in San Antonio, THE SOUND OF MUSIC and CHAPTER TWO for Sebastian's Dinner Theatres, and APARTMENT EIGHT STRIKES BACK, CHAPTER TWO and DEATHTRAP at the LaMirada Civic Theatre. Barbara hails from Texas and recently received her BA from Trinity University in San Antonio in Theatre and Costume Design.
